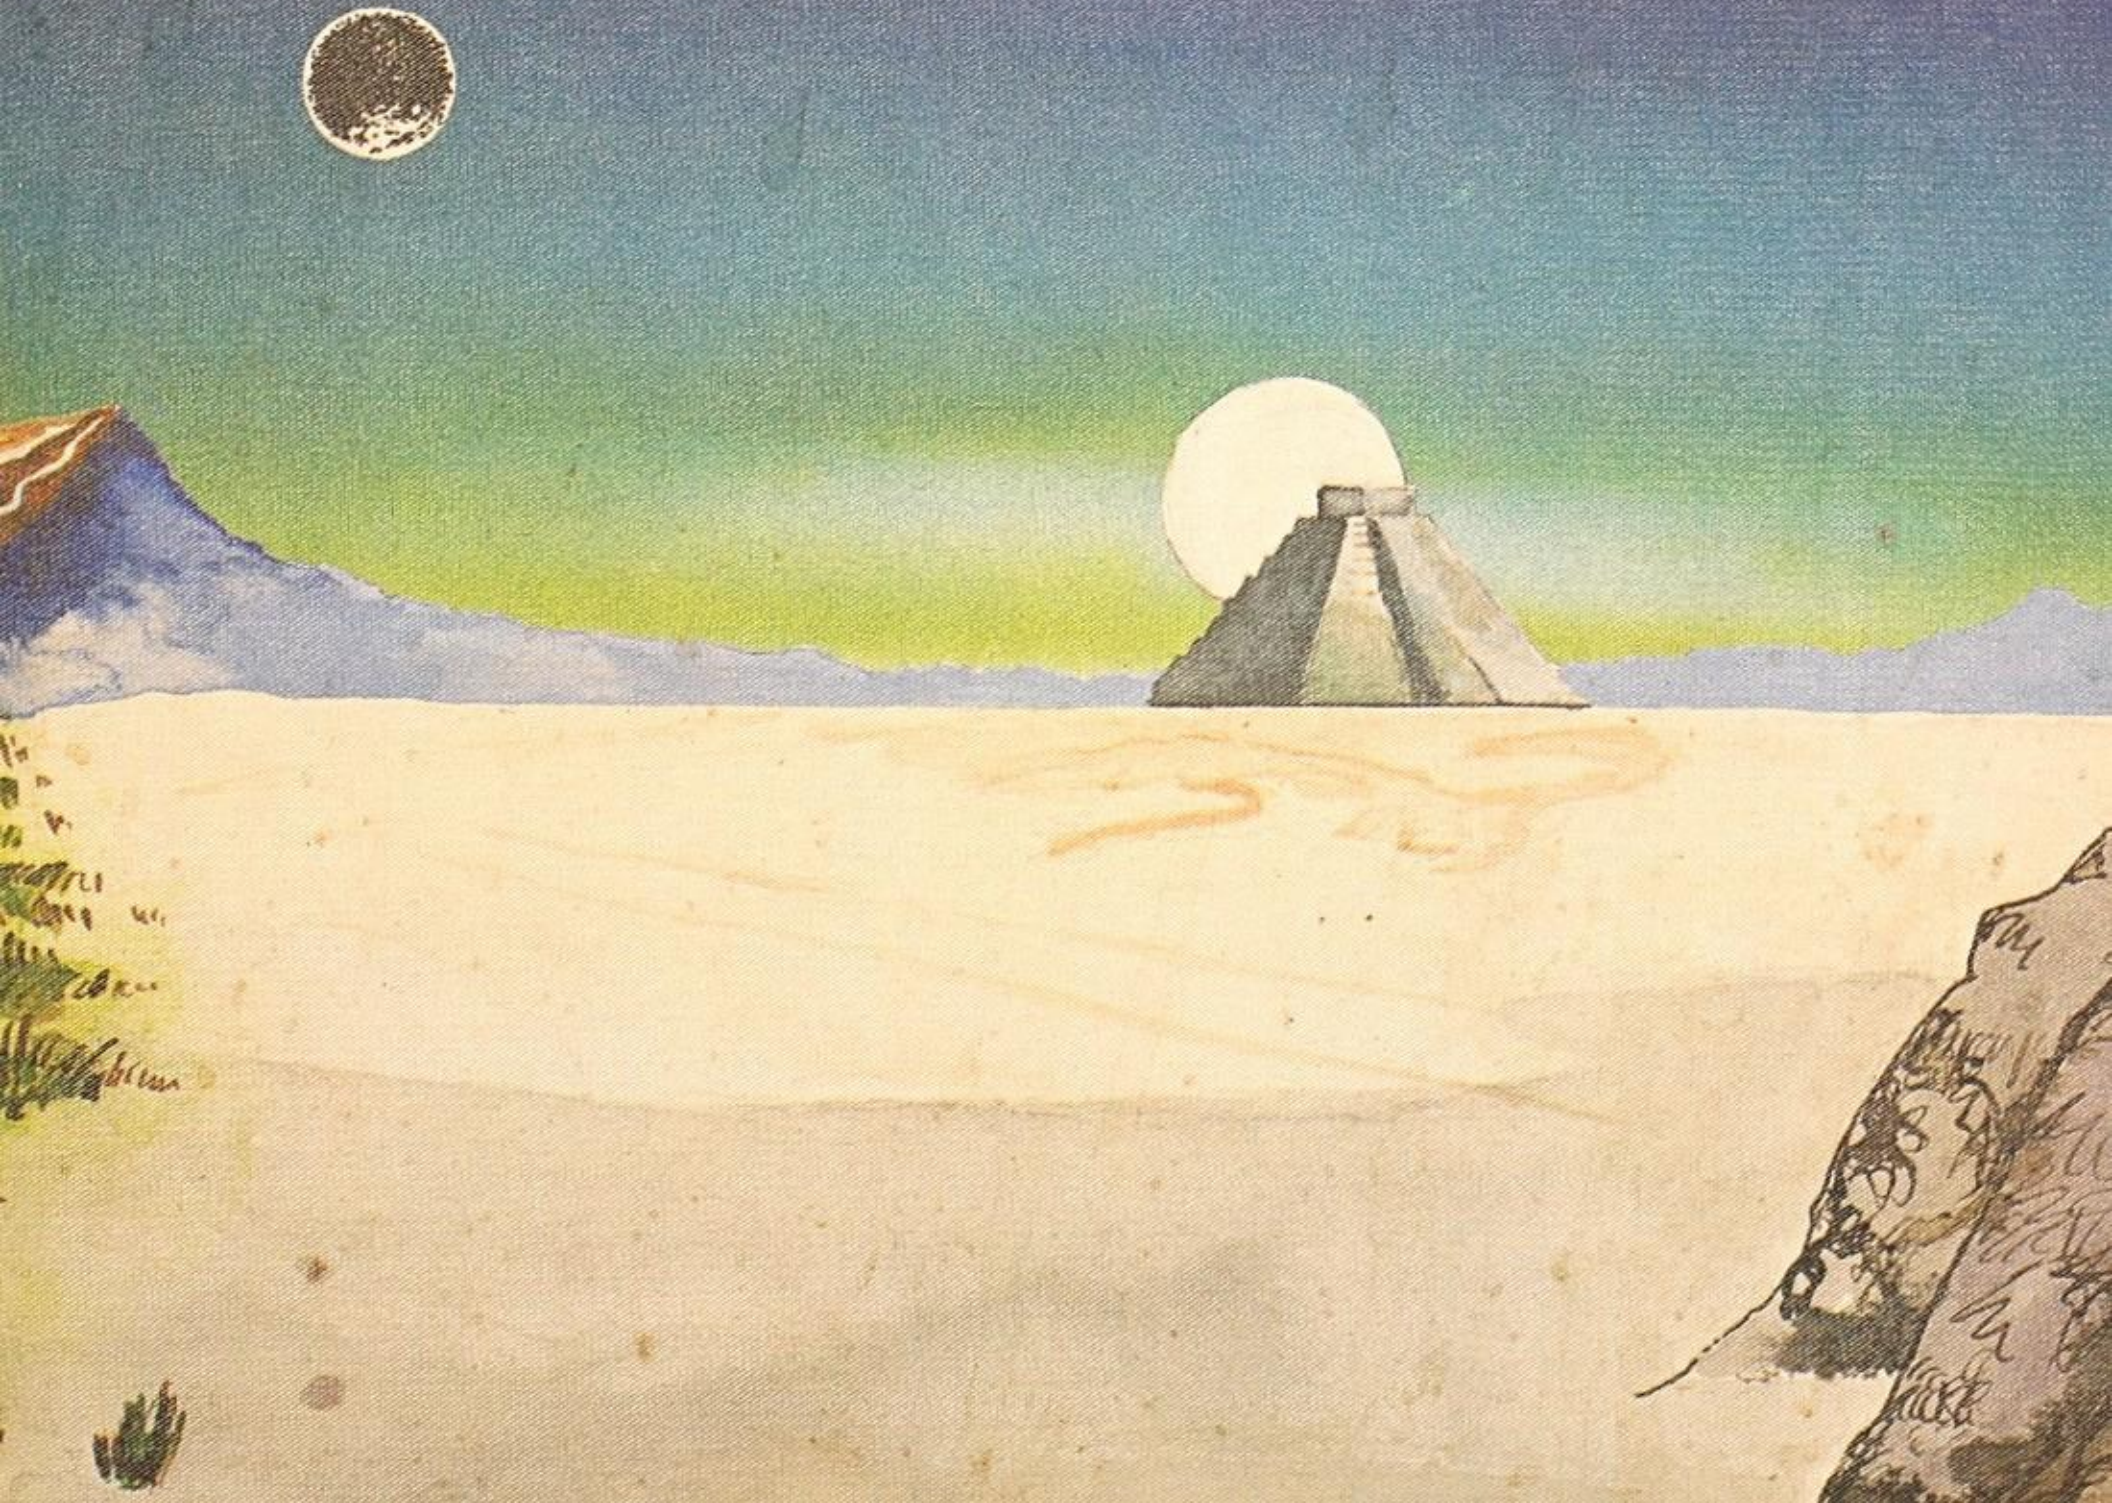
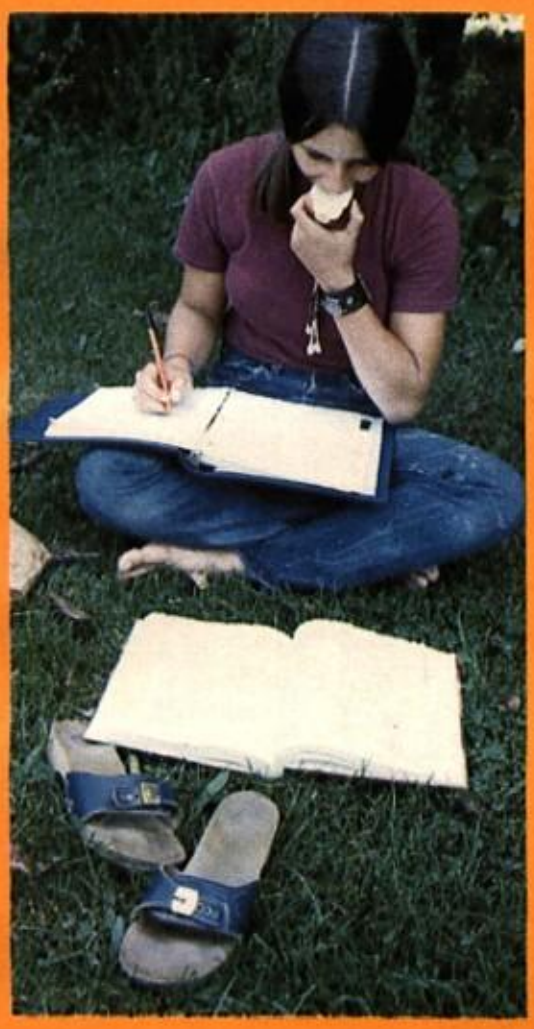
Revelations of Green Quill '13

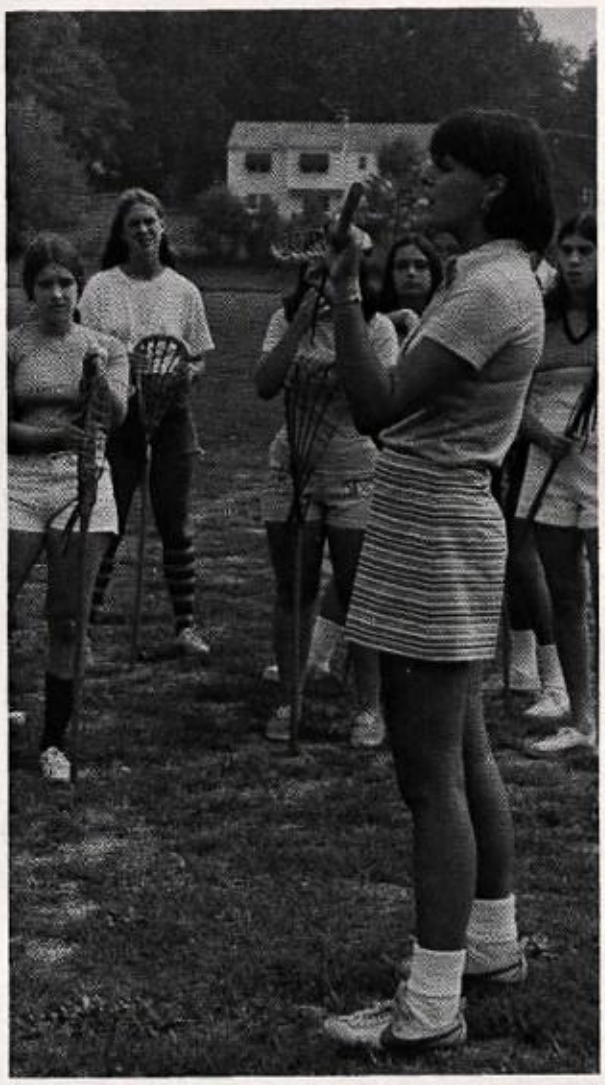


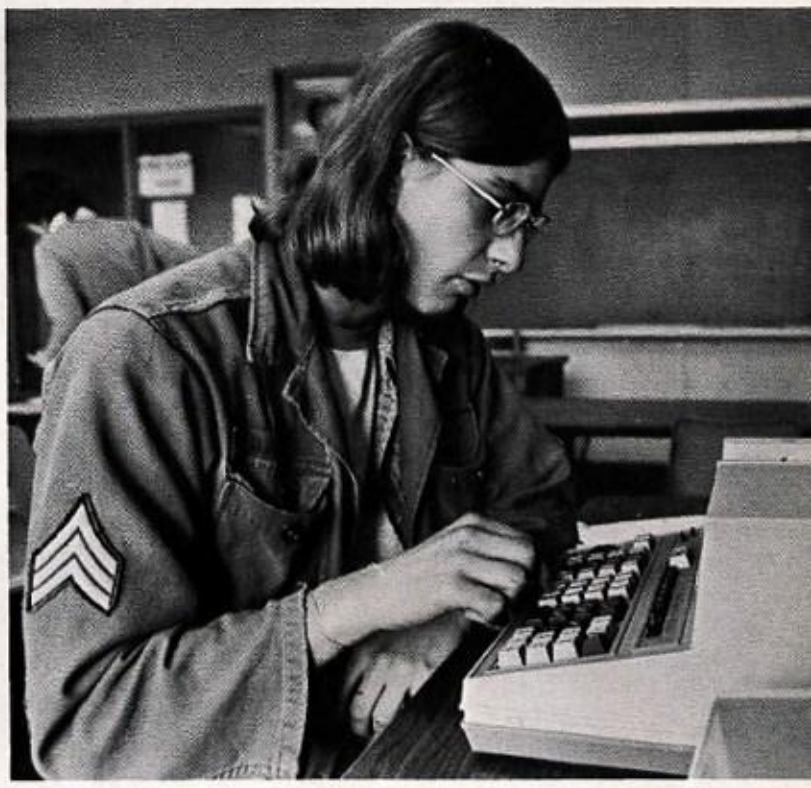


1975 GREEN QUILL

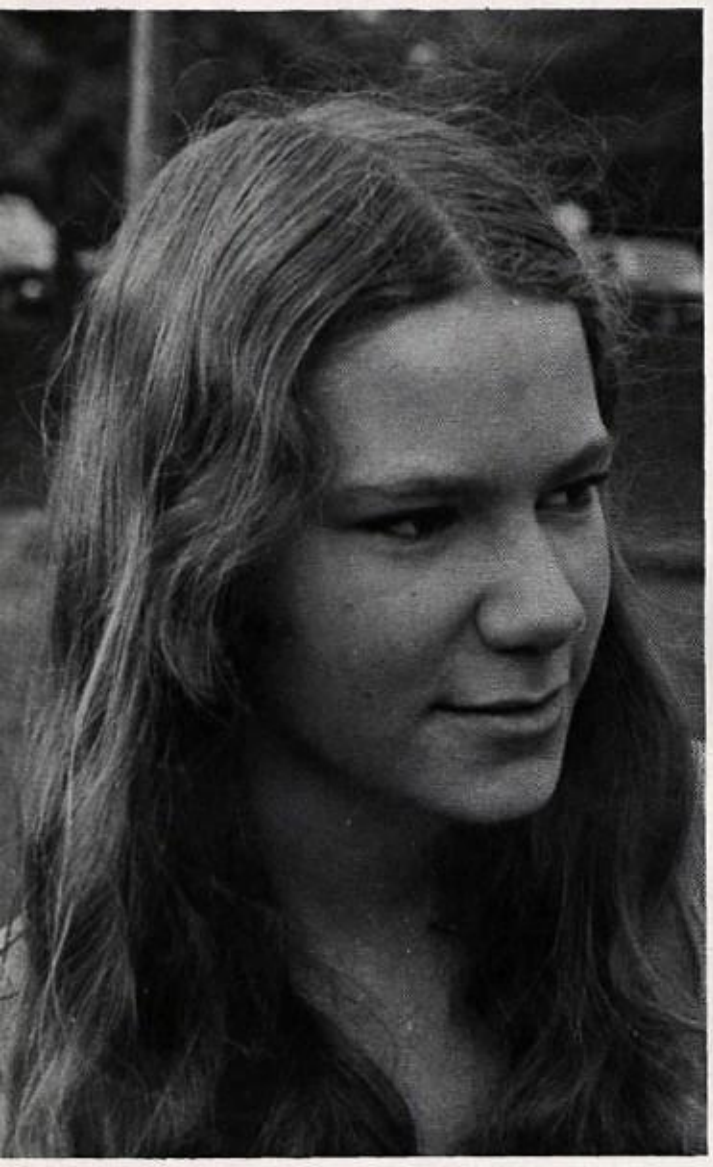
Pleasantville High School Pleasantville, New York

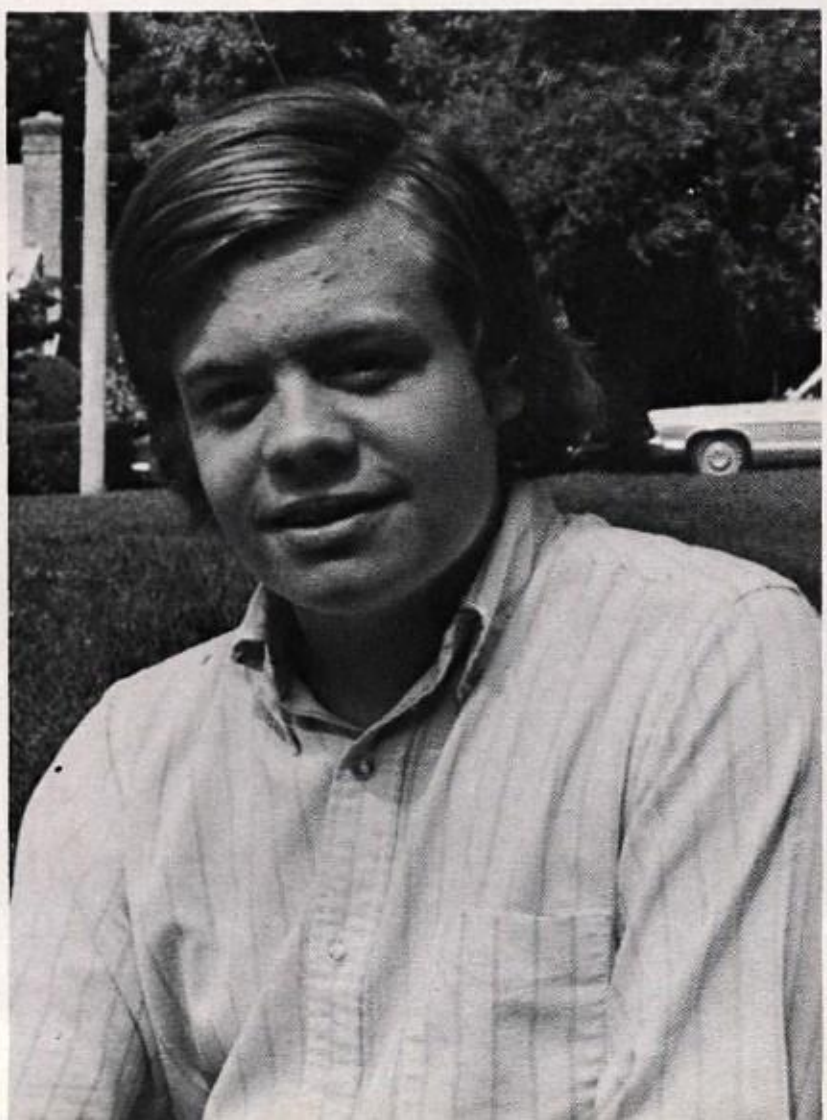
Remember the days as they really were. Each one different





Life
is a reflection
of yourself.





Alone, life is impossible

It's hard to be an individual
when you seem
so much
like the rest of the crowd

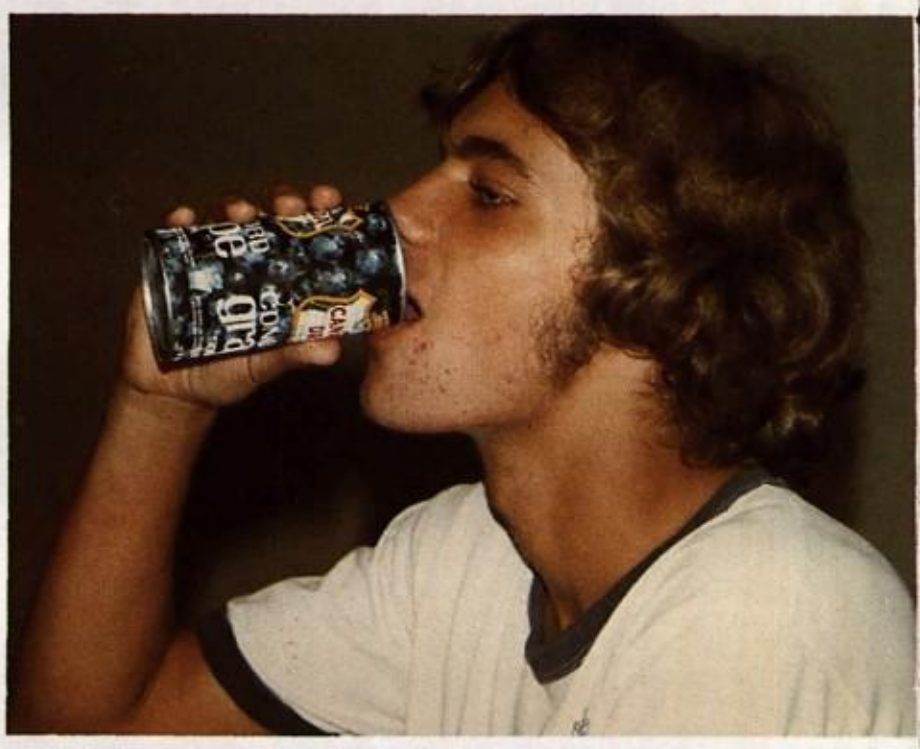
One big push is all you need to discover yourself

We have diverse interests
Each leaves his own mark
Through his contribution
It may be in the arts
Athletics or scholarship



Our moods
may change
again
and we will be enveloped
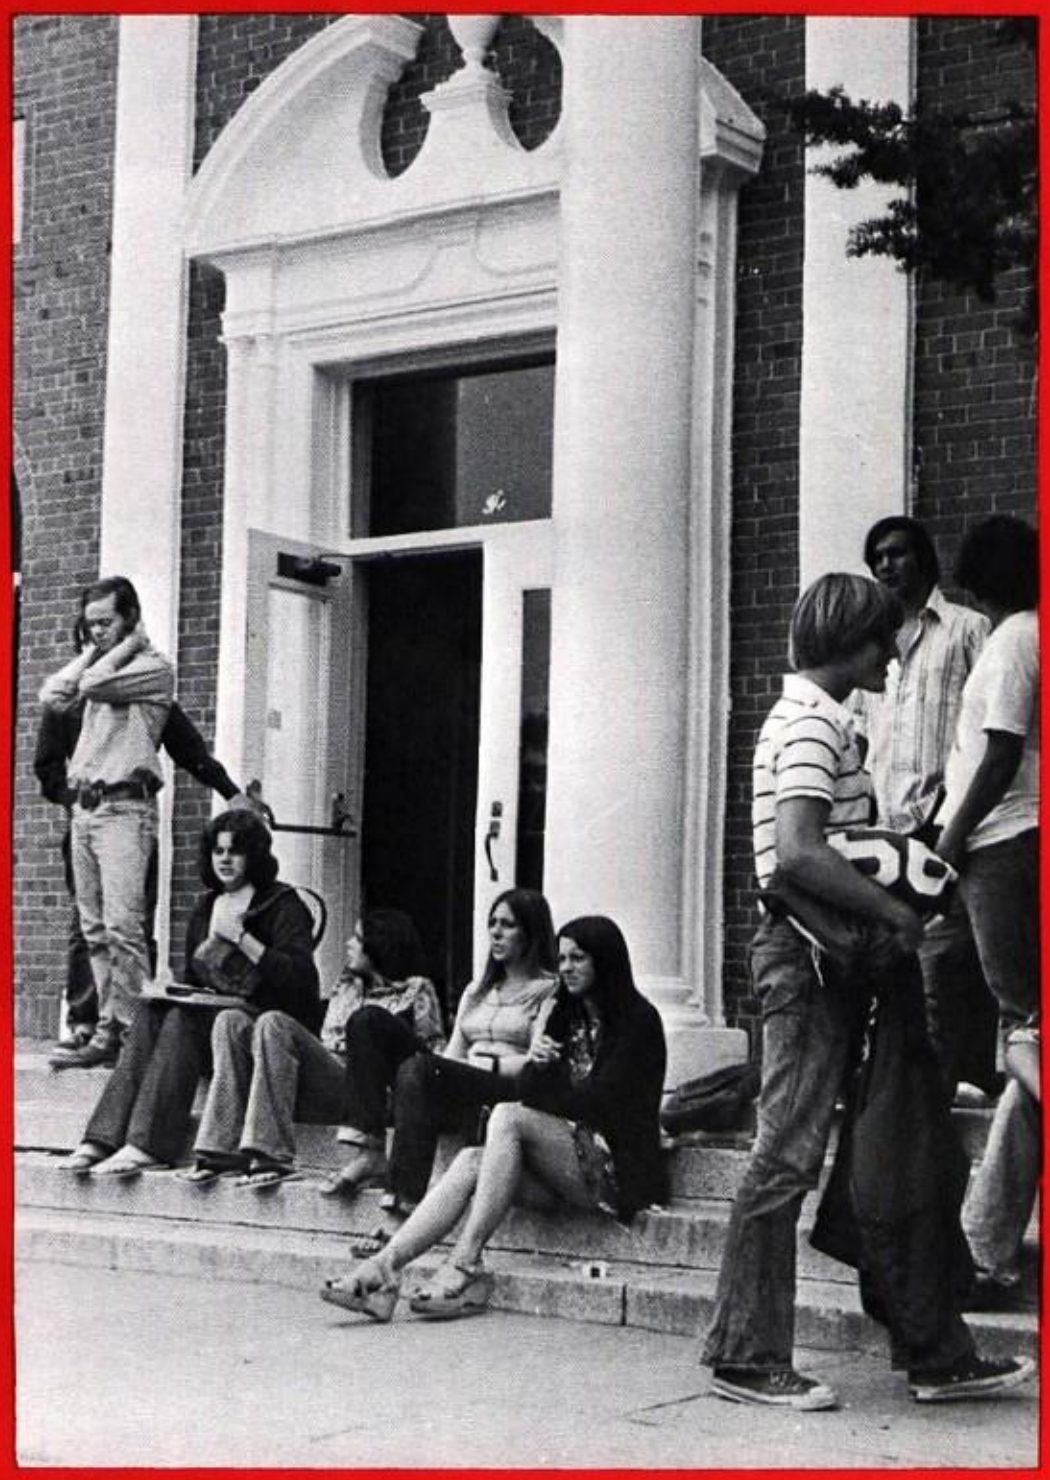
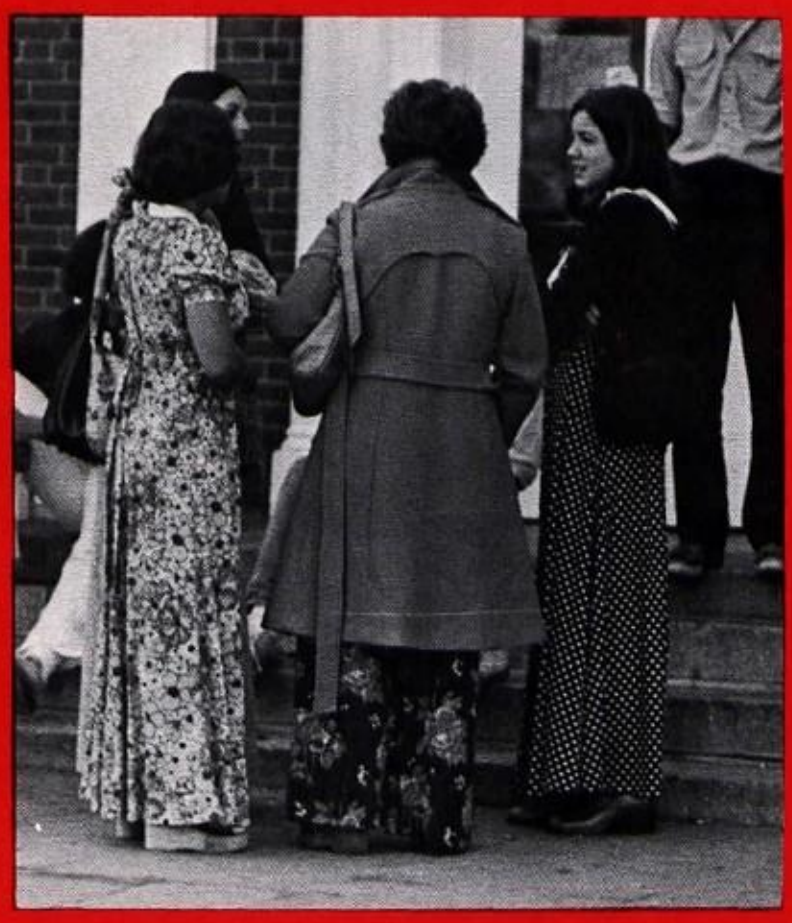
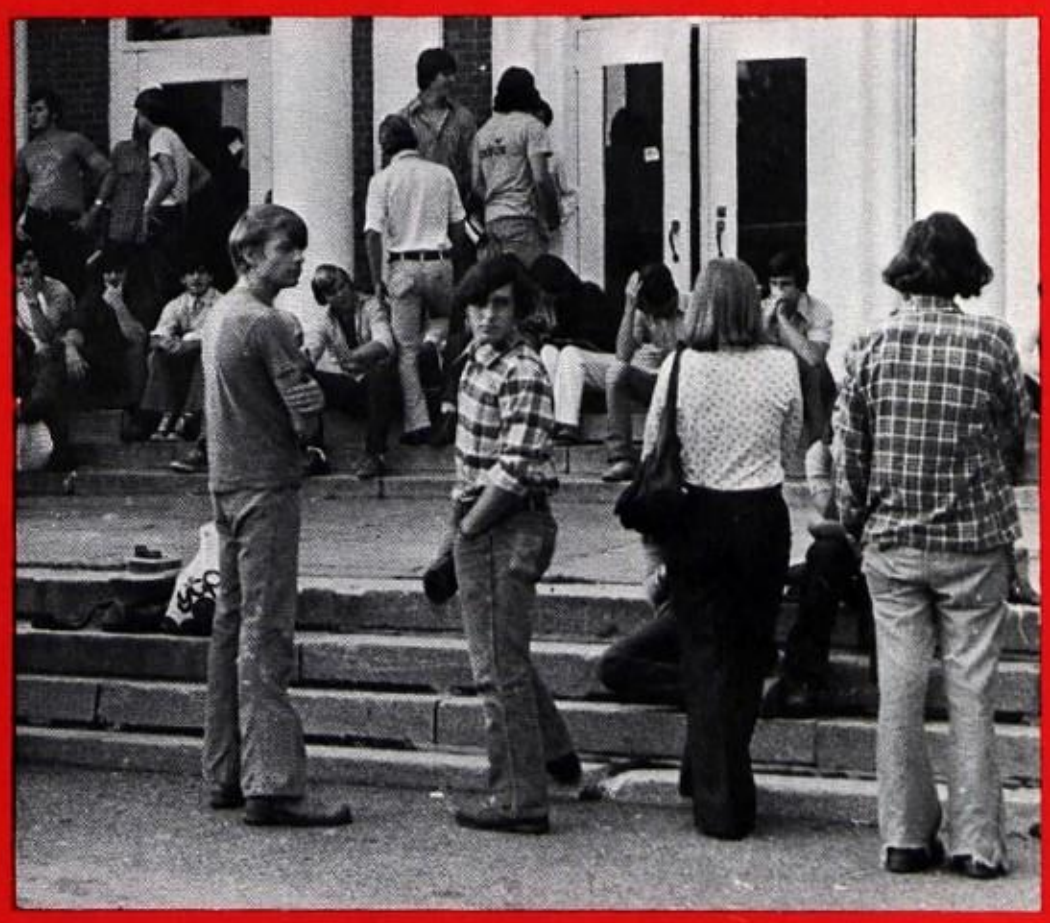
by thoughts
of the future







Never mind the rest of the world,
Let's not miss each other.

Dedication

You have challenged us to achieve magical goals. The results enrich and delight the entire community and then some. You have warmed up our hearts as well as our voices. With fond affection we thank you for the enchantment you so liberally shared with us and we dedicate the 1975 Green Quill to you, Renato Vellutino.

Class, I shall now demonstrate the scientific value of hypnosis by giving each of these subjects a post-hypnotic suggestion...
Mr. Jennings, when I clap my hands, you will awake, quack like a duck, jump like a frog, and eat like a horse...
Mr. Cooper, when I clap my hands you will awake, think you are an airplane, fly out the window of this 10-story building, bounce twice, and die..
Miss Vavoom, when I clap my hands, you will awake, go to my apartment, slip into something comfortable, and wait for me in a state of trembling ecstasy! Ah, science!

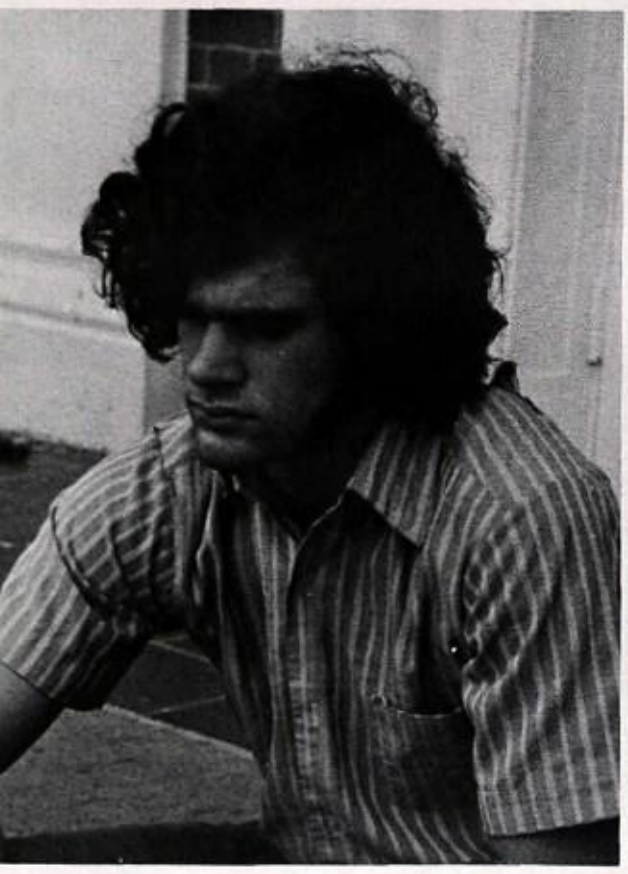
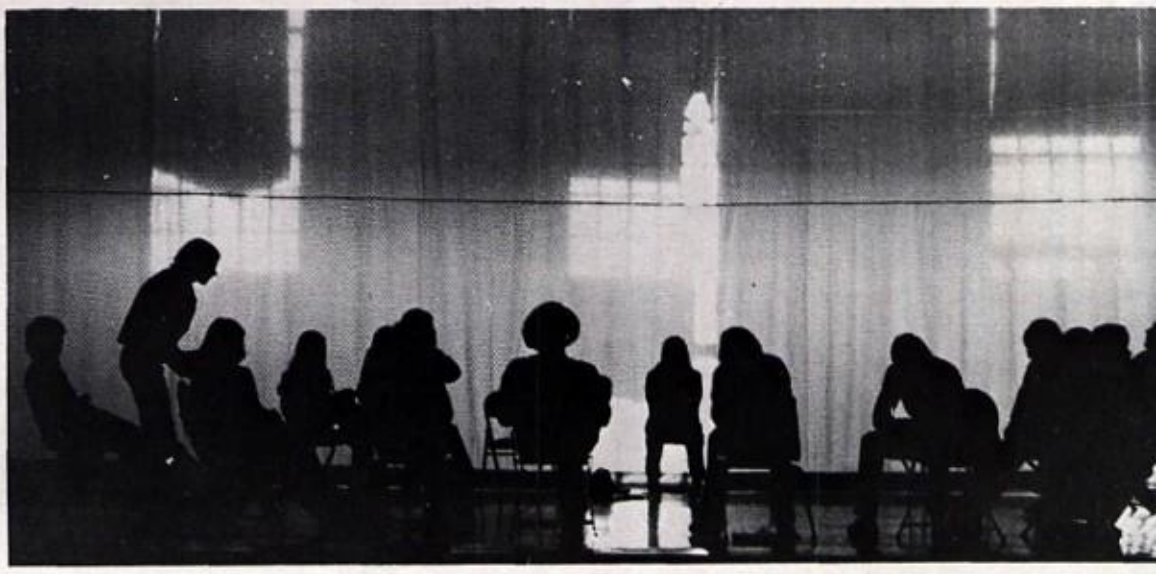
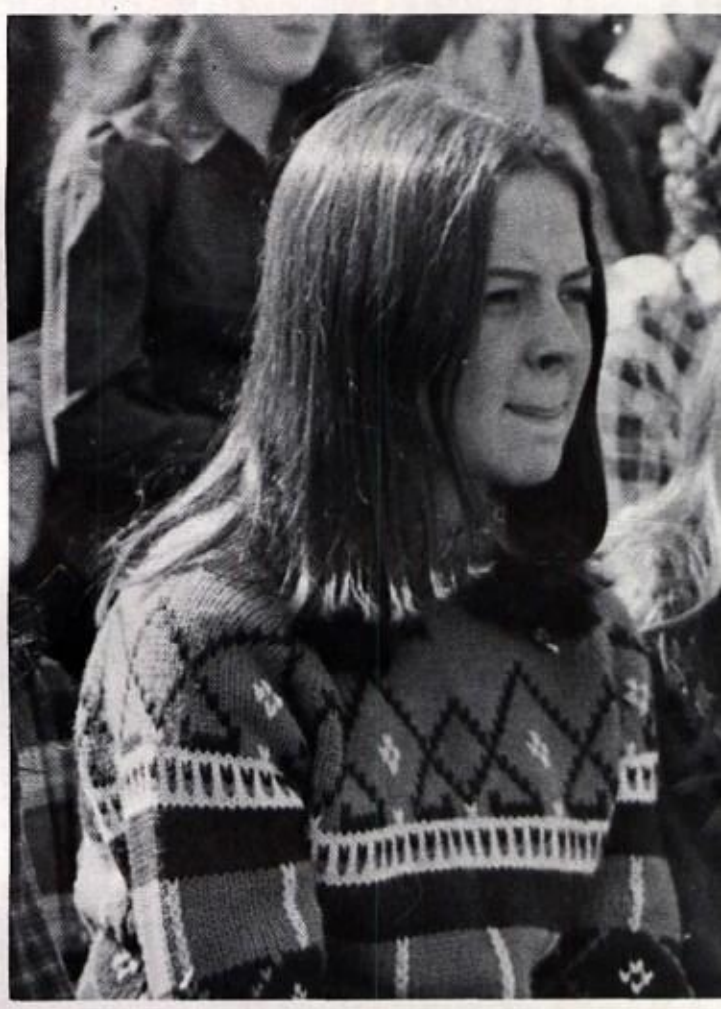
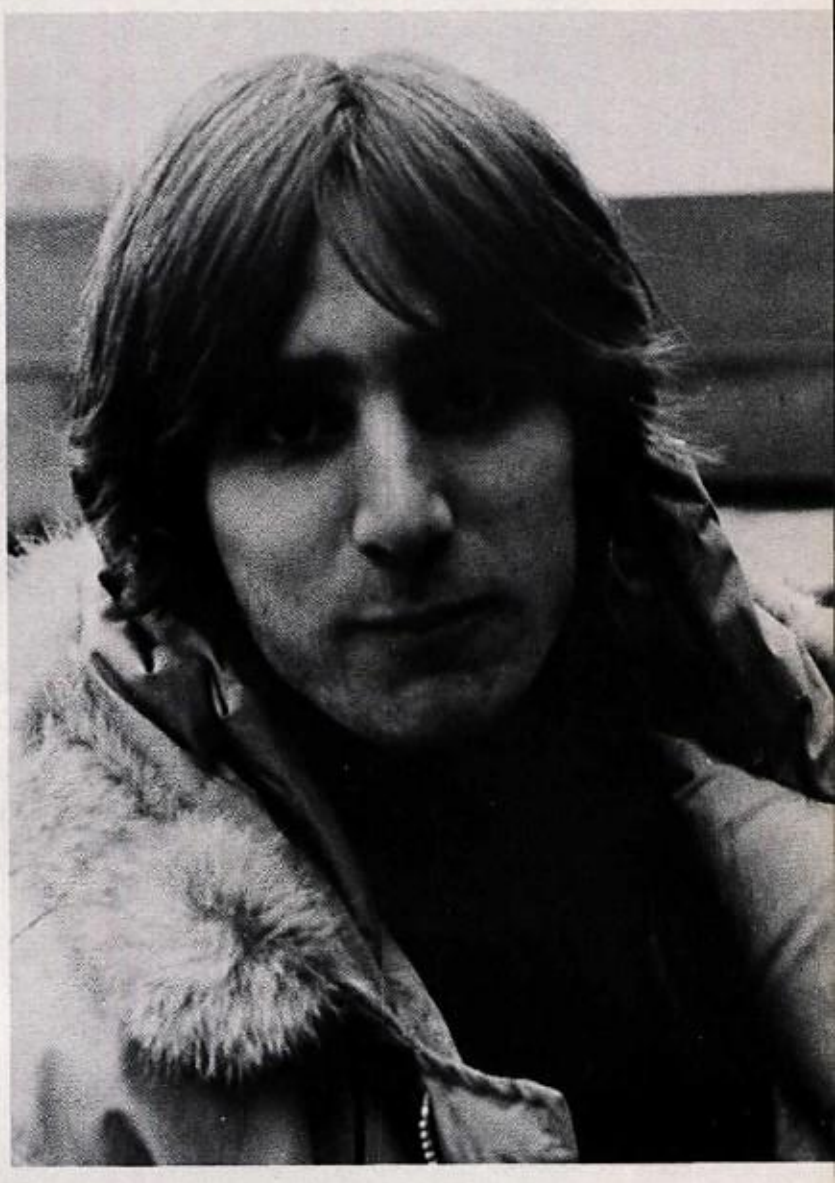
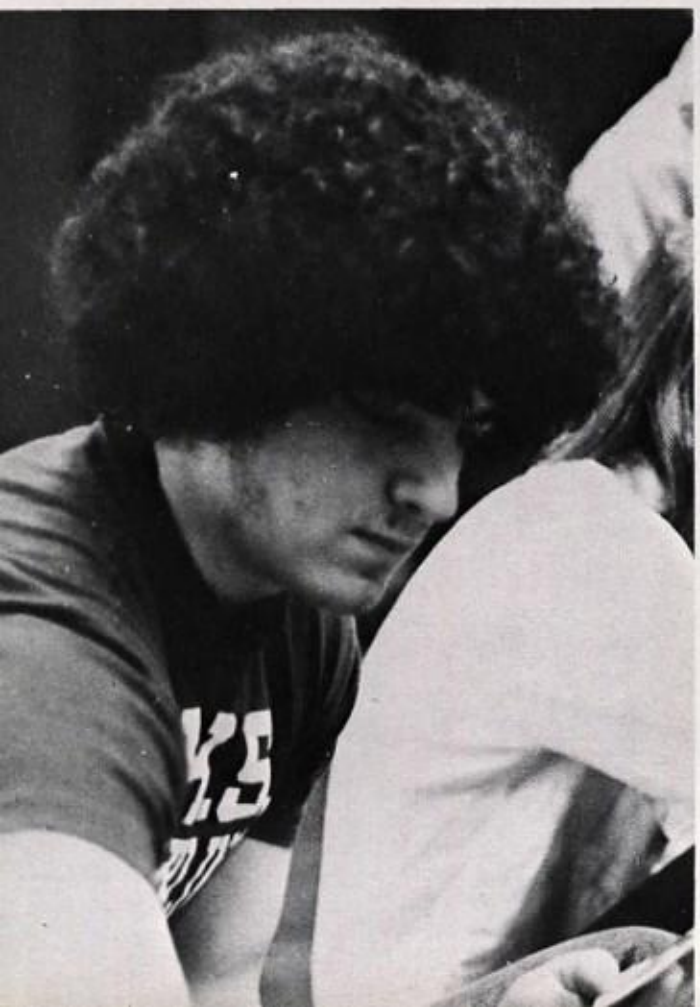
Hot Dogs - 40

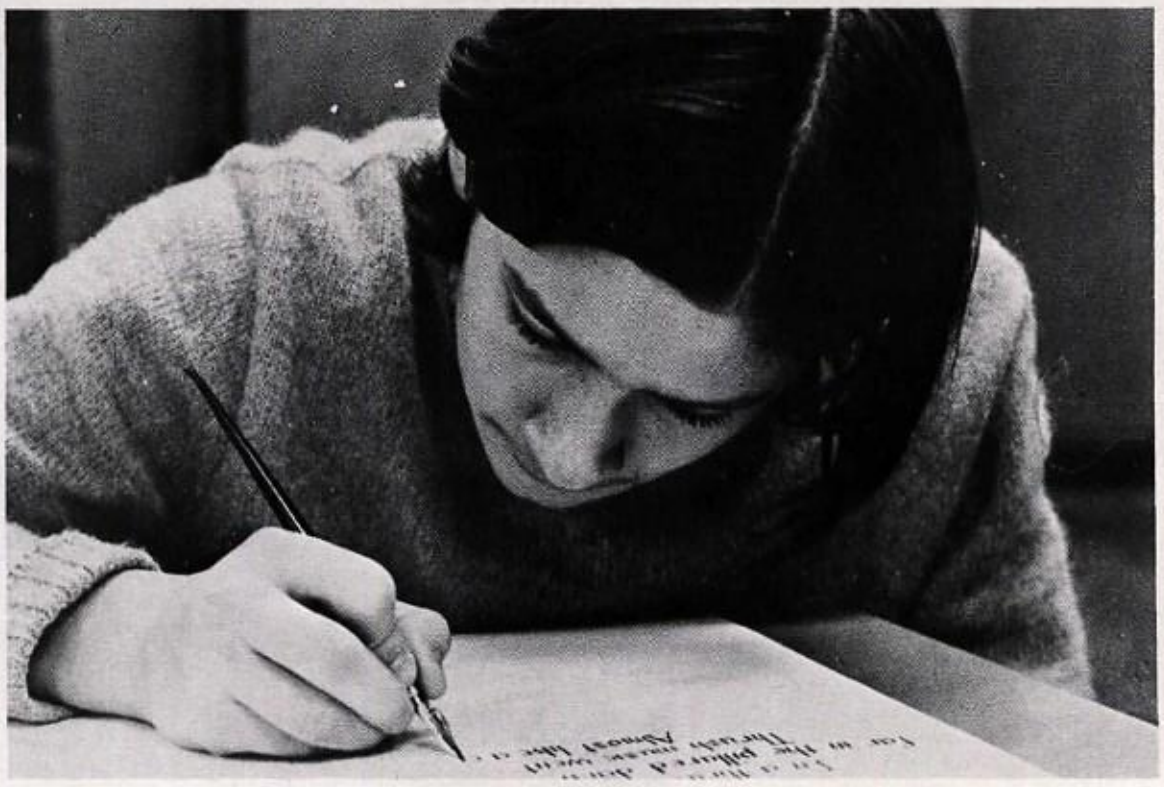


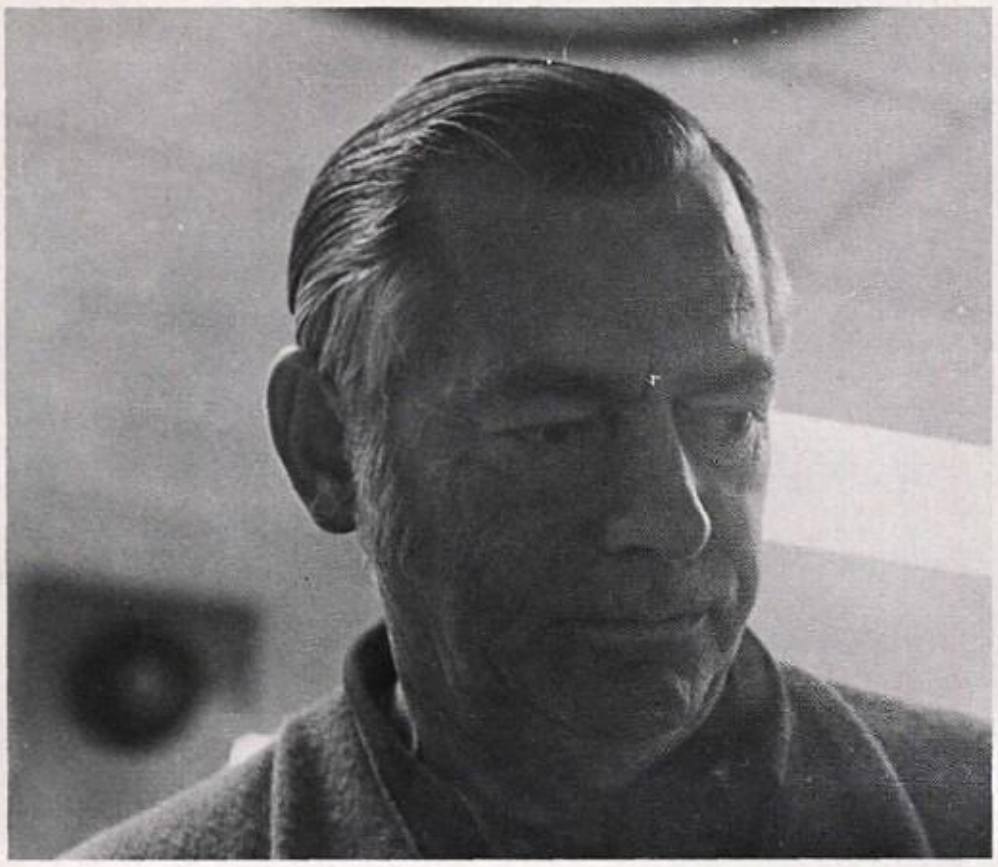


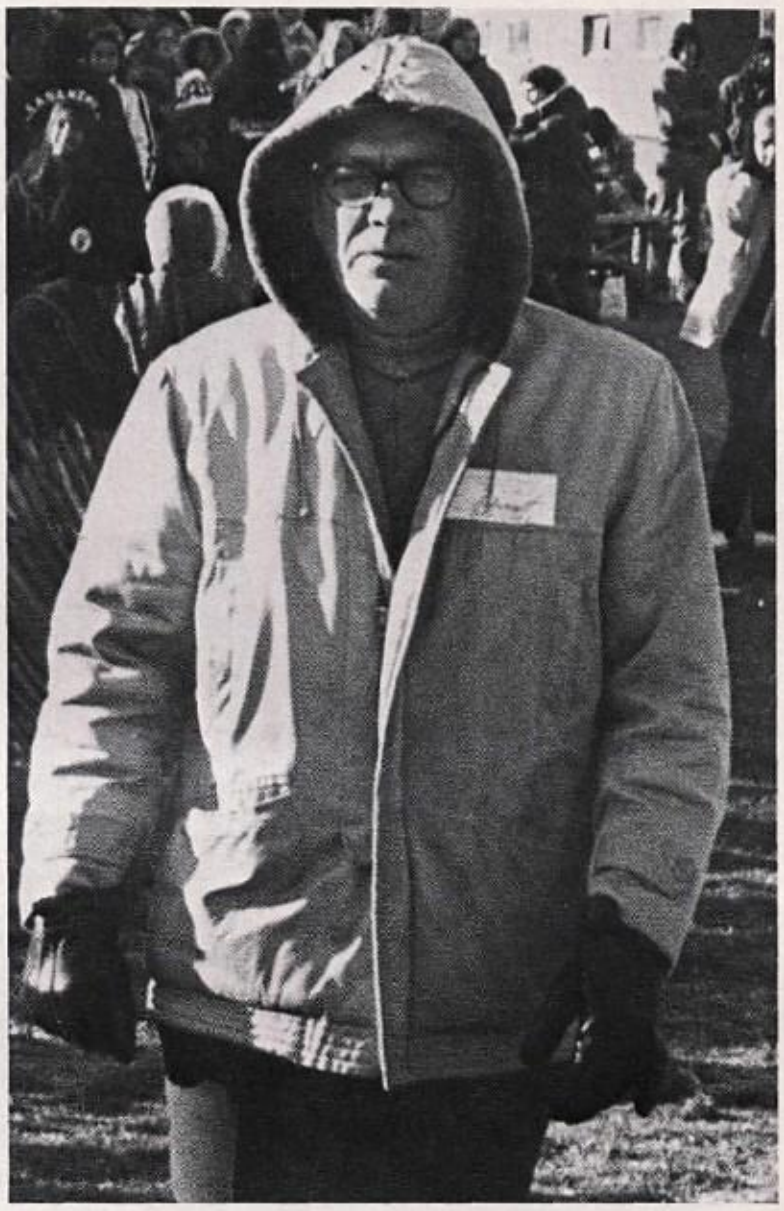








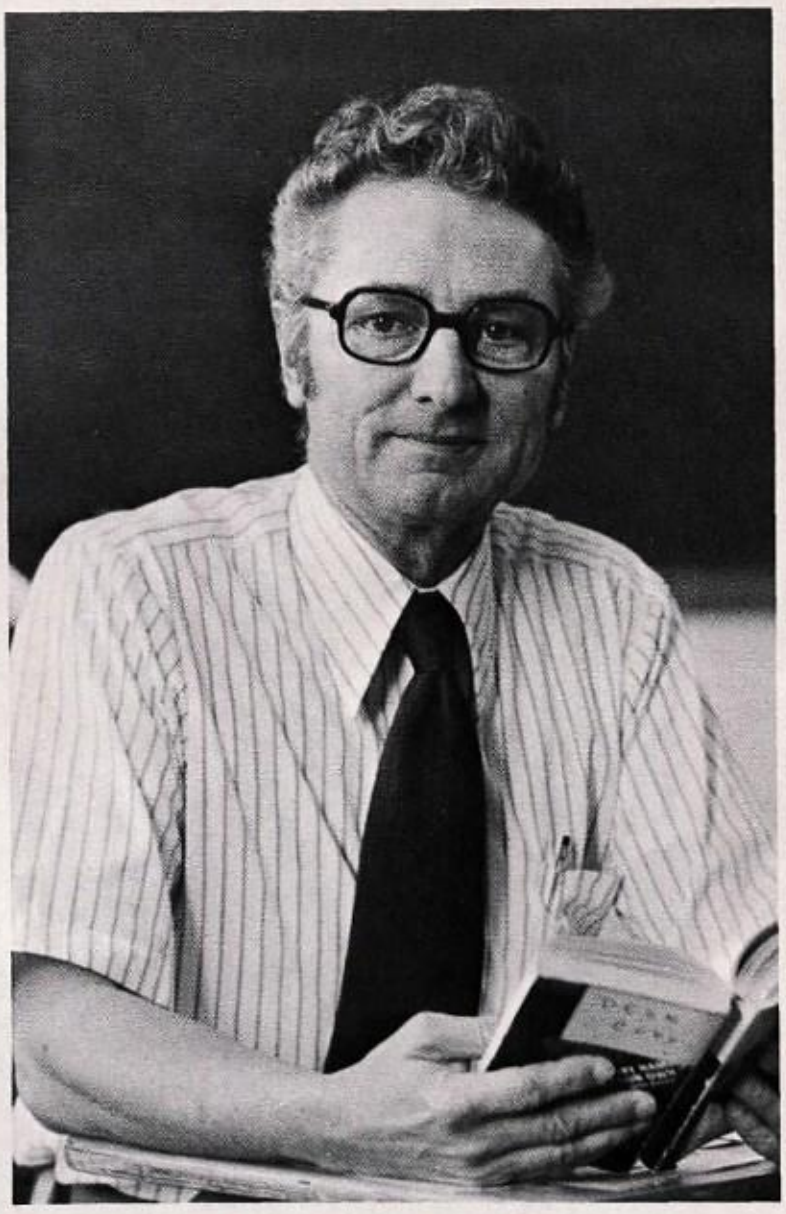




This June, Pleasantville High School will lose two fine teachers through retirement: Mr. Herman Wittern, and Mr. George Nazaruk. Mr. Wittern came to P.H.S. in 1951 and has taught English ever since. In his earlier years, he coached the track team to several successful seasons. He has been the Pierian's advisor since its inception and has even built a house with his own hands.

Mr. Nazaruk, affectionately called, "Naz", has been the Art teacher here since 1954. Art students will remember his familiar phrase, "You're the artist!" For several years he has been the advisor of the Green Quill.

Each of these men has left his mark on our school; they shall not be forgotten.



In Memoriam

An Ever-Present Memory

Sally Doolittle

I can still see your face
tho' you're now out of sight
and I wonder if what has happened
has been done for the right.
And I think of you and how I saw standing there before and it just seems impossible
you won't be there any more.
And I try to understand
but you know it's hard to do
'cause it's never really happened to someone as close as you
I can still hear your voice saying things you used to say;
words you said the same as mine
are each and everyday.
And even tho' the time we spent
together was quite small,
it seems to me . . .
we never really parted at all.
And I try to understand
but you know it's hard to do
'cause it's never really happened
to someone as close as you.
Yes, I can still see your face
tho' you're now out of sight
and I wonder if what has happened
has been done for the right.
And I think of you often and the things you used to do and I just hope you realized
how much we loved you.
And I try to understand
but you know it's hard to do
'cause it's never really happened
to someone as close as you.

Give up learning, and put an end to your troubles.

Is there a difference between yes and no?
Is there a difference between good and evil?
Must I fear what others fear? What nonsense!
Other people are contented, enjoying the sacrificial feast of the ox.
In spring some go to the park, and climb the terrace,
But I alone am drifting, not knowing where I am.
Like a newborn babe before it learns to smile,
I am alone, without a place to go.

Others have more than they need, but I alone have nothing.
I am a fool. Oh, yes! I am confused.
Other men are clear and bright,
But I alone am dim and weak.
Other men are sharp and clever,
But I alone am dull and stupid.
Oh, I drift like the waves of the sea,
Without direction, like the restless wind.

Everyone else is busy,
But I alone am aimless and depressed.
I am different.
I am nourished by the great mother.

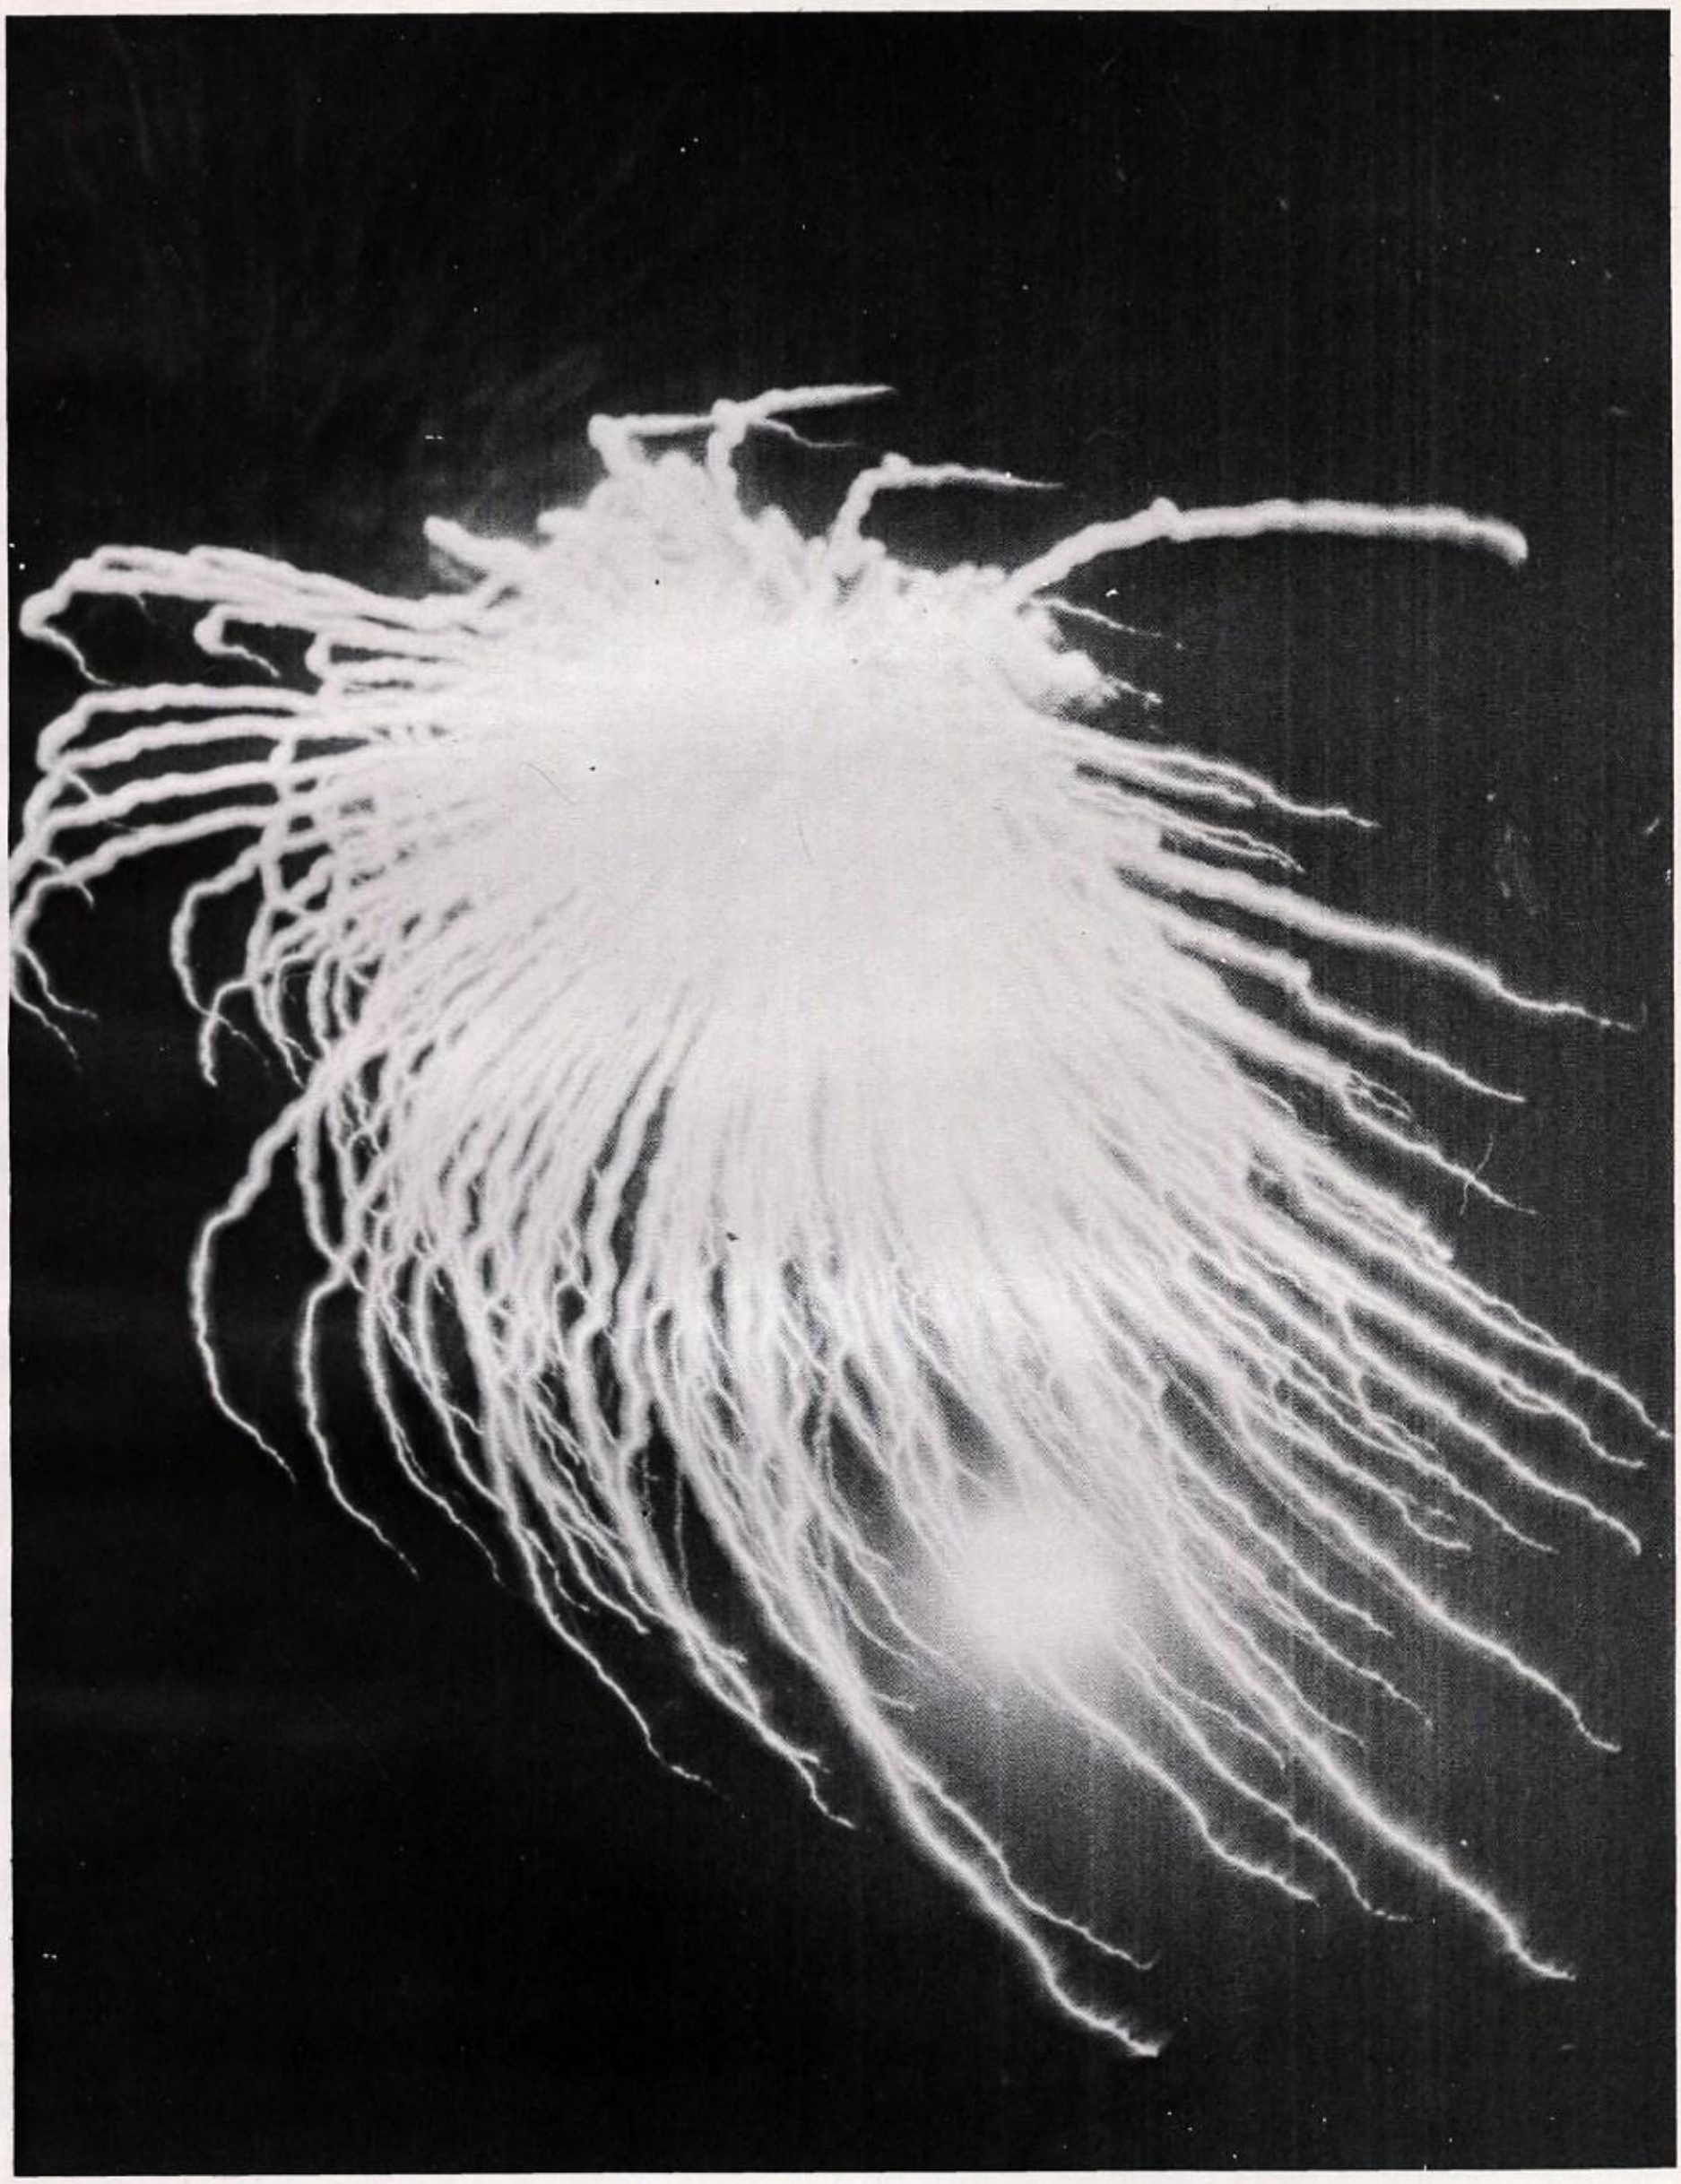
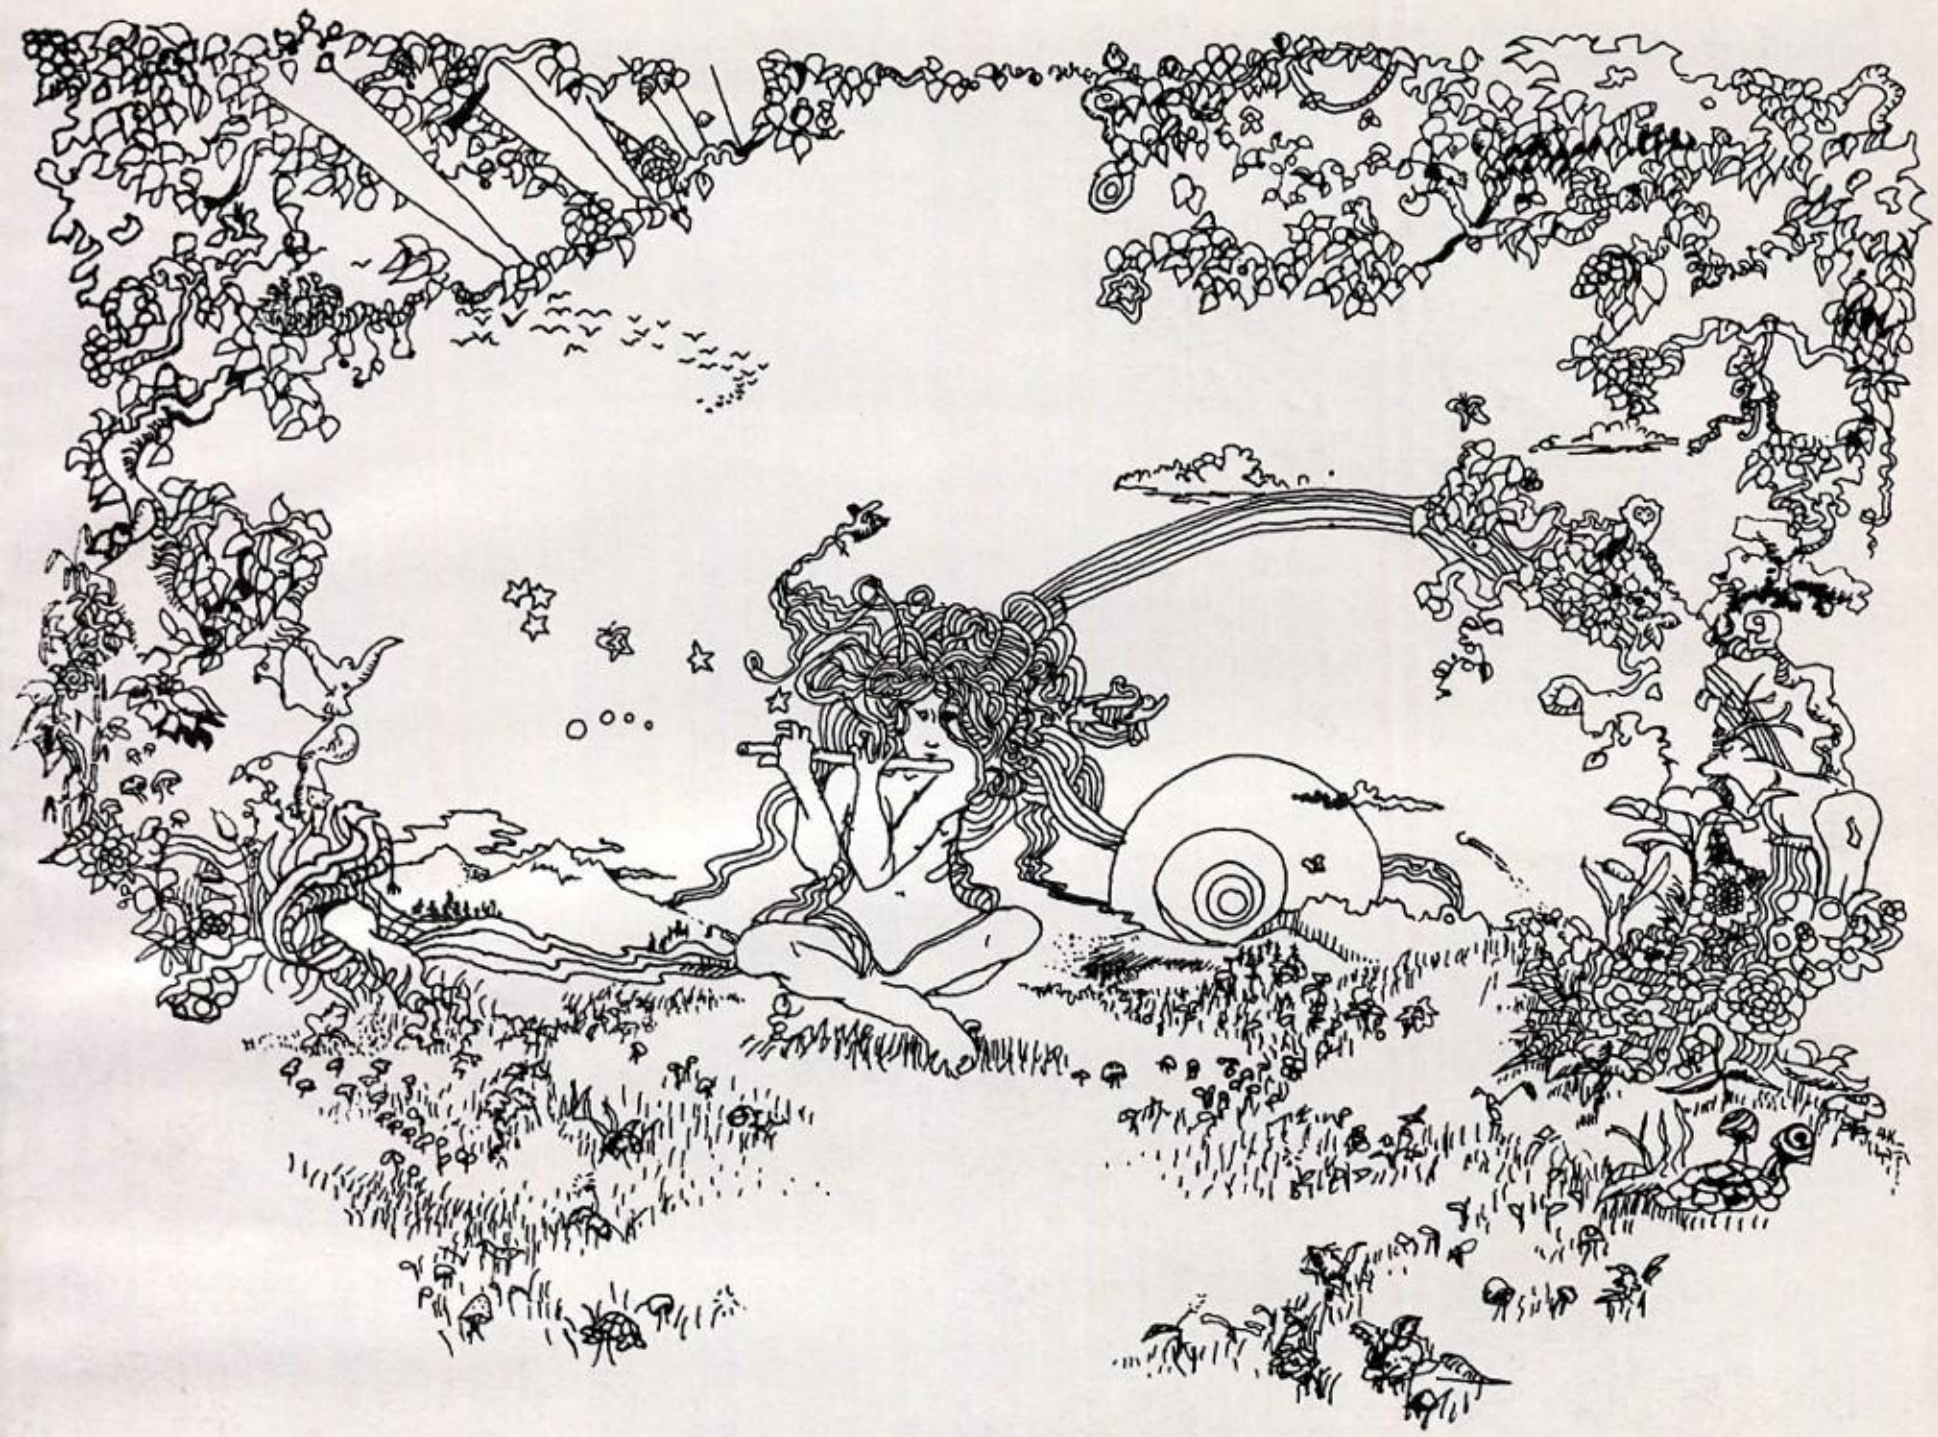
from

the International Clu





Man was seemingly without defense.
Not for him the tiger's claws,
the elephants thick hide,
or the armadillo's scaly armour.
To the gazelle he was slow of foot,
To the lion a weakling,
and the eagle thought him bound to earth.
But you gave him powers they could not comprehend:
a skillful hand,
a probing mind,
a loving heart,
a soul aspiring to know and fulfil its destiny.
